

Immigrate To Canada

Immigrate to Canada Through the Francophone Route

Your French can open doors to Canada!

Why Canada

Welcomes Francophones

Canada now invites French-speaking applicants from all provinces, not just Quebec! The French Language Proficiency Category-based Express Entry Draws launched in 2023 offers faster Permanent Residency (PR) opportunities for qualified candidates with French speaking ability.

Canada's Immigration Policy

- Canada encourages immigration to Canada
- Quebec - the only Francophone province
- New policy intake of 'Francophones' in all other provinces.
- Ranking based on points - Comprehensive Ranking Score (CRS)

Why Choose the Francophone pathway to Canadian Immigration

- Lower CRS threshold
- Open to all provinces (not limited to Quebec)
- Boost your career with bilingual advantage
- Permanent Residency for you and your family

Express Entry – Canadian Experience Class v Francophone Category

Experience Class route: CLB 10, Graduate, Work (3 years in India, 1 year in Canada, 2 year study in Canada = 509 @ 6 years ('maxing out' on work, education, language parameters))

V

Francophone route: NCLC 8, CLB 7, Graduate, Work (1 year in India) = 410 @ 1 year

French Language Proficiency category pathway gives a saving of 5 years and expenses of a two year study program in Canada

If you're studying French (B1, B2, C1, C2), you already hold a key advantage!

B2=NCLC 7-8 | C1 = NCLC 9 | C2 = NCLC 10+

Advantages, Next steps, Tips

Advantages of CA Permanent Residency

- Live and work anywhere in Canada, with opportunities for French-speaking professionals in many provinces.
- Access free healthcare and quality of education for yourself and your family
- Become eligible for Canadian citizenship after meeting residency requirements, travel to USA/ world on Canadian Passport (without any additional visa)
- Sponsor close family members to join you in Canada
- Enjoy a high standard of living and protection under Canadian law and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Next steps in your immigration pathway

- Step 1. Complete your graduation
- Step 2. Prepare for TCF/ TEF Canada & IELTS/CELPIP
- Step 3. Gain 1 year of work experience in India
- Step 4. Create your Express Entry profile
- Step 5. Expect Invitation to Apply - ITA (French Language Proficiency-Category)
- Step 6. Submit Documents and await approval for Canadian Permanent Residency

Tips

- Canada accepts only TCF/ TEF tests, scores valid for 2 years (no other variant of test). However, Pass DELF Test - It is a 'life time' certification of French Language Skills.
- Immigration Consultant - Take services of a RCIC 'Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant'
- With B1/B2 French, you are 'so close' to NCLC 7 "Just do it' to have 'options'
- While a fantastical idea develops about the immigration pathway, it is hard work, along the way, meeting requirements of work, culture and environment.

Right Path Consultants wishes you a beautiful immigration journey!!!
